A. INTRODUCTION

- 1) The Authority, following consultation with the recognised Trade Unions and Headteachers, are advising that this grievance procedure be recommended for adoption by Schools Governing Bodies. In order to ensure that the procedure is fair and effective it is recommended that it be applied in all instances where a grievance matter is raised.
- 2) It is recognised that grievances may arise in a variety of forms. It is hoped that, wherever possible, grievances can be settled informally, without recourse to the formal stage of the procedure.
- 3) This procedure does not apply to salary issues including the pay and grading of posts, income tax, national insurance, pension schemes, or in place of a formal stage, or an appeal process, within another Schools HR Procedure.
- 4) The aggrieved employee has the right to be accompanied by a trade union representative or a work colleague of his/her choice, if he/she wishes but by no-one else, at all formal stages of the procedure.
- 5) If the employee is disabled, the manager will make reasonable adjustments to any provisions, criteria or practices associated with following the Grievance Procedure that may affect the employee.
- 6) This recommended procedure is subject to the provision of relevant Education Acts. It is recommended to apply to all staff in schools, where adopted by the Governing Body.
- 7) Throughout this document any reference made to a Manager can be defined as a Headteacher, Chair of Governors or a member of staff delegated by the Headteacher or Chair of Governors to hear the grievance.
- 8) This procedure shall apply equally to Headteachers who have a grievance as it applies to other members of staff.
- 9) For grievance purposes, where a school based member of staff has a grievance against a LA officer the LA Grievance Procedure will be applied.
- 10) For grievance purposes, where a member of staff within the LA has a grievance against a member of staff of the school, the schools Grievance Procedure will be applied.

- 11) A group of employees with the same grievance may raise the matter as a collective grievance under this procedure, provided that it is not more appropriate to use the Joint Consultation Framework (i.e. a grievance relating to the application of existing arrangements should be raised through this procedure, rather than the Joint Consultation Framework which would address proposed changes to existing arrangements).
- 12) Employees are advised to consult their Trade Union representatives at any stage of the procedure.
- 13) Records should be kept detailing the nature of the grievance raised, the employer's response, any action taken and reasons for it. These records should be kept confidential and retained in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. Throughout the grievance process, documentation will be shared with the employee where that is appropriate.
- 14) It should be noted that where an employee becomes sick during the course of a grievance, or submits a grievance while off sick, resolution of the grievance is likely to contribute to their recovery. Efforts to resolve the issues raised should therefore, where possible, and in conjunction with advice from Occupational Health, continue during the period of sickness absence.
- 15) Equality

HR regularly review all the policies and procedures they recommend to ensure there are no negative equality impacts. Consultation with our customers is an important part of how we achieve this. If you feel, on reading this policy, that there may be a negative equality impact within your school, please tell us about this. Please also let us know if you need to access this policy in a different format. You can do this by contacting the following officer:-

B. INFORMAL STAGE

- 1) Where an individual member of staff has a grievance, s/he should first of all attempt to resolve that grievance informally through discussions with their line manager, or with the other party if the grievance relates to the actions of another employee.

- 2) The line manager, if it is deemed appropriate, may feel it necessary to discuss the grievance with the Headteacher in order to resolve the issue.
- 3) Informal resolution will involve the Headteacher where the grievance relates to the actions of another employee. Informal discussions and/or meetings with both individuals, and / or discussions with HR will take place.

C. FORMAL STAGE

- 1) If the member of staff's grievance cannot be resolved at the informal stage then s/he should submit a completed Grievance Form to the Headteacher (or the Chair of the Governors if the Grievance is with the Head). The Grievance should set out the full details of the grievance, advising what steps have already been taken to resolve the issue informally, what resolution is sought, along with any supporting documentation relevant to the grievance. This should be copied to any other person(s) concerned.
- 2) On receipt of the formal grievance, the Headteacher / Chair of Governors will arrange a hearing, normally within 10 working days, with the aggrieved employee, or with both parties if the grievance relates to the actions of another employee, An HR representative can be in attendance to support this hearing if appropriate. The employee is entitled to be accompanied by a Trade Union or a work colleague at the hearing. The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the procedure set out in Appendix A.
- 3) The outcome of the formal grievance hearing will be communicated to the aggrieved person and the other person(s), if the grievance relates to the actions of someone else, in writing, normally within 5 working days of the hearing, along with their right of appeal against the decision if the employee continues to be aggrieved.
- 4) In potentially complex cases, where the complainant does not feel able to attend a meeting with the respondent, or where an investigation may be required to establish the facts, the Headteacher, following consultation with the Chair of Governors, or the Chair of Governors, may appoint an appropriate and experienced individual preferably from within the school to conduct the investigation. If appropriate they can be supported by an HR representative, or another suitably experienced person. The investigation should include meetings with all parties. Where an investigation has been undertaken, a meeting will be held with the complainant to outline the findings and any recommendations from the investigation and to give them the right of appeal. Alternatively, in agreement with the complainant, the outcome can be confirmed in writing and the right to appeal against the decision given. In these circumstances there is no requirement for a grievance hearing.
- 5) If the employee continues to feel aggrieved, they should submit their appeal within 10 working days of receipt of the letter outlining the decision of the grievance hearing. Additional evidence/information submitted at a later date will only be considered in exceptional cases and with the agreement of all parties.

- 6) The Appeals Committee of the governing body will normally meet within 15 working days of the member of staffs' appeal letter being received. Governors who were involved in the grievance hearing will not be part of any subsequent panel. On occasions it may be necessary for Governors from another school to attend the hearing.
- 7) The Appeal will be conducted in accordance with the provisions set out in Appendix B.
- 8) The decision of the Appeals Committee will represent the final stage of the procedure.
- 9) Where a grievance has been heard in accordance with this procedure, the member of staff cannot submit further grievances on the same topic. This provision seeks to ensure that the same grievance is not resubmitted if it is not upheld.
- 10) An HR Advisor may be invited to attend the formal grievance stage of the procedure for the purpose of giving advice to the management representative in accordance with the procedure outlined within Appendix A, or the appropriate Committee of the Governing Body in accordance with the procedure outlined within Appendix B.
